Migrant Deaths and Disappearances - US Mexico Border

The Missing Migrants Project tracks the deaths of migrants across the globe as they travel to their destination. The data is gathered from official records such as government authorities, medical examiners as well as other sources like media reports and interviews of migrants.

This visual focuses on the US-Mexico border region, exploring the cause of migrant deaths and survival rate.

Total Dead or Missing

Unknown Drowning Hyperthermia ■ Vehicle Accident Dehydration Hypothermia Presumed drowning Hit by vehicle Murdered Sickness and lack of access to medicines Violence Excessive Physical Abuse Suicide Accident (non-vehicle) Cardiac arrest ■ Electrocution

Hit by train

Asphyxiation

Envenomation

Fall into a canyon
Heat stroke
Hypoglycemia

Pneumonia

Train Accident

Fall from border fence
Fall from train
Fall from vehicle

Coronary artery atherosclerosis

Cause of Death

